

FARM FRESH RI

A HUB FOR LOCAL FOOD SINCE 2004 farmfreshri.org

Thank You For Donating to Farm Fresh Rhode Island

Farm Fresh RI is a 501c3 non-profit organization growing a strong, sustainable local food system for New England farmers and eaters. Our programs support hundreds of New England farmers and food producers, and connect thousands of consumers to locally grown food each year.

Your gift will support our efforts to build healthier communities, increase access to fresh food, strengthen local businesses, and improve the impact of food production and distribution on our environment.
